

Art Library: located in the Music Building across campus toward the UGen

The Art reference desk will help you find architecture, art, and art history reference materials as well as books, photographs, videos, pamphlets, auction and art exhibition catalogs. Research tools include traditional reference materials and art CD-ROMs.

See Also "Music Library"

Ask a Librarian: <http://www.library.ucsb.edu/help/ask/>

Get help online!

Circulation & Reserve Book Service: 1 South

Located at the main entrance to the Davidson Library. Students use their Access cards to check out books and or pick up Interlibrary Loan items. UCSB reserve materials are available here. Many of the study notes, exams, etc. are also available on ERes, the electronic reserves service.

Classes

Interdisciplinary 1 and 100: Library classes offered for credit introduce students to library research methods and resources including the Web and article databases.

Copying & Printing

Self-service photocopiers are available and will accept copy cards and cash. Purchase a copy card for photocopiers, computer printers, and microformat copiers.

Curriculum Lab: 1 North

The children's literature collection, approved state textbooks, and teaching software are kept here.

East Asian Studies Collection: 5th floor

Materials in Chinese, Japanese, and Korean languages are located on the 5th floor. Staff in the East Asian Collection offices (Rooms 5537 and 5539) behind the elevators can assist you in accessing the collection.

Ethnic and Gender Studies Library: 2 South

Houses collections of books, magazines, pamphlets of special interest to ethnic and gender studies. Reference help for this collection is available at the Reference & Information Desk (1 South).

- Andelson Collection (Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Studies)
- Asian American Studies Collection
- Black Studies Collection
- Coleccion Tloque Nahuaque Collection (CTN, or Chicano Studies)
- Native American Studies Collection
- Women's Studies Collection

Government Information Center: 1 North

Materials published by the federal, state and local Tri-County governments as well as some foreign or international agencies are housed here. Much of the library's holdings in microform are kept here.

Interlibrary Loan: 1 North

Obtain materials from other libraries. <http://www.library.ucsb.edu/depts/access/ill.html>

Lost and Found: Safety Office, 1 North

This is located at the back entrance to the library.

Map and Imagery Lab: 1 North

Atlases and gazetteers are shelved on the walls outside MIL and are available whenever the library is open. The lab has an extensive Imagery Collection, Digital Data, and specialized computer or photographic equipment for accessing and reproducing images.

Microforms: 1 North, Government Information Center

Items are shelved by type (fiche, film or print) and then by call number. To print, purchase a copy card from the dispenser near the Reference & Information Desk, 1 South.

Music Library: located in the Music Building across campus toward the UCen

Staff at the second floor desk can assist you in locating and using the library's music periodicals, books, scores, and recordings. Music CD-ROMs are available.

New Arrivals Area: Main Entrance

New books, government publications, and other new items will be on display here. These new items can be checked out.

Proxy Server: <http://www.library.ucsb.edu/help/proxy/>

Use our electronic resources from off-campus!

Reference & Information Desk: 1 South

Get help with your research questions in the humanities and social sciences. Research consultations may be scheduled with subject specialists. Stop here for information on all library services.

Sciences-Engineering Library (SEL): 2 Central

Here you will find books, current and bound journals (G-GE, Q-V), and reference tools in the sciences and engineering. Ask at the SEL reference desk for research help in these areas.

Serial and Newspaper Reading Area: 1 North

Current journals in the humanities and social sciences are shelved here. Recent newspapers are alphabetical by title. Some newspapers are discarded after a few months; those we keep are on microfilm by call number in Microform Area, 1st floor, Government Information Center.

Special Collections: 3 South

Rare, valuable, unique, and historical materials are kept here. Major collections include the Wyles Collection (Civil War, Lincoln, western history), Printers Collection, California Ethnic and Multicultural Archives (CEMA), American Religions Collection, and University Archives.

24-hour Study Room: Just outside the front entrance. Food & drink are allowed here!Wireless:

The library offers wireless access in a number of areas, including throughout most of the 1st floor, the South side of the 4th floor, the 24-hour study room, and the Arts Library. There are also tables in the 24-hour study room and on the 4th floor (South) where you can physically plug your laptop into our network (open port). To use either this network or the wireless network, you must be a university employee or currently enrolled student.

Word Processing

Designated computers in the library may be used for word processing. Please ask at the Reference & Information desk for locations. In addition, computers with word processing software are available at UCen (3rd floor) and the Instructional Computing labs on campus.